IS BILL BACK?

By Kristi Stephens

Despite a total of 3,986 votes cast – representing a turnout of roughly one quarter of the estimated 15,000 registered voters in the City of Romulus – this year's mayoral contest turned into a squeaker. Only 20 votes separated the challenger and apparent victor, William Oakley (who garnered 1,966 votes), from the seemingly defeated incumbent Beverly McNally (who received a total of 1,946 votes).

But Oakley will not be sworn into office on Monday, despite the vote totals reported by the City Clerk's office, because McNally has filed an official request for a recount. Since such a procedure must be conducted by the County Elections Office, it may be as late as early to mid December before the City learns the results.

According to law, a recount can only be requested for two reasons: suspected fraud or error on the part of the City Clerk's office and/or the election workers.

The first $180 ($10 per precinct) of the cost for the recount will be borne by McNally; the remainder – which could amount to up to $2,000 – will be shouldered by Romulus taxpayers.

The deadline for filing a recount request is six days from the determination.

Hundreds Pay Tribute to Late Senator Bill Faust

By Barry Baumann

In an emotional ceremony held in Lansing on Wednesday, October 25, hundreds of friends and many State elected officials joined the family of the late State Senator William Faust to honor his memory.

Featured during the tribute, which was held at the new State Library/Museum complex, was the unveiling of a bust of the late Senator, which will stand in the atrium of the building near the government area. The bust's placement is particularly appropriate because it was Faust who initiated efforts to establish the structure and guided efforts to put the Library/Museum complex under Legislative control. Funds for the bust were donated by the friends of Senator Faust.

Officiating at the ceremony in Faust's memory was Senator Jackie Vaughn III of Detroit; also speaking a few words were Senators Harry Gast, Art Miller, and John Cherry, as well as House Speaker Paul Hillegonds.

Over the course of his illustrious career, improving our state's library facilities was one of the causes most dear to Senator Faust's heart. It is because of his well-known interest in such facilities, and his belief in the pleasure and benefits that they bring to our citizens, that the City of Westland plans to name its new library in Faust's honor when it is completed.

Senator Faust retired from office on December 31, 1994, and passed away less than a month later – on January 21, 1995 – due to complications following heart surgery. □ tion of the official vote count – which would, in this case, be 5 p.m. Tuesday, November 14.

Unopposed in their bids to seek reelection were City Clerk Linda Choate, who received 2,880 votes, and Treasurer James Napiorkowski, who garnered 2,735 votes.

Ballot totals in the Council race surprised few, since the candidates who earned the top seven spots on Tuesday were the same seven who led the pack in September's primary (albeit in a slightly different order). Resuming the role of Mayor Pro Tem for the City of Romulus will be Randolph Gear, who collected 2,305 votes. Also elected to City Council were incumbent William Wadsworth (2,185), William Crova (2,064), incumbent Michael Prybyla (1,975), Deborah Romak (1,948), Mary Collins (1,748), and incumbent Jimmie Raspberry (1,566).

Narrowly defeated in his bid for reelection was incumbent City Councilman Ellis Pennington, who placed eighth with 1,498 votes. (As "the little paper" went to press, it was rumored that Pennington may also plan to file an official request for a recount.) He was followed by candidates Brooker Edwards (1,438), Gwendolyn Sibert (1,226), John Ryznar (1,018), Stanley Kreft (940), Jeannine Wafer-Frison (713), and Tony Heimberger (539), as well as write-in candidate Robert McLachlan (271). □

SMART and Romulus Celebrate New Van Service

Romulus citizens wanted to be able to walk out their door and get on a bus to shop, attend recreational activities, travel to medical appointments, and go just about anywhere else without the hassle of finding transportation. SMART and the City have responded to their request.

On October 27, a celebration at the City's Recreation Center welcomed the new Romulus SMART Connector, a van which is now available to pick up residents at their homes and take them anywhere in the City. This is the first time that Romulus residents have had a public transportation service of this kind.

"We have worked hard with SMART to build this wonderful and convenient service for our residents," said Mayor Beverly McAnally. "It will make it easy for the sons and daughters who can't get off work to take their parents to their appointments, or for the independent individual who doesn't drive but is active in the community to find transportation. Getting from one end of Romulus to the other is often difficult. The SMART Connector will make it easier for our residents to get where they want to go," she added.

The Romulus Connector will also transport passengers to SMART's fixed routes to travel outside of the City. Connections to Michigan Avenue and Middlebelt Road fixed routes will give Romulus residents an option to travel throughout the tri-county area. Starting in December 1996, another route — the Metropolitan Airport Loop — will be implemented for service on Northline and Ecorse roads.

Michael Duggan, interim general manager of SMART, stated, "It is time for public transportation to work for its supporters, and this new Romulus service is in response to their need."

The Romulus SMART Connector's curb-to-curb service operates Monday through Friday from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. The fare is $1 for senior citizens and people with disabilities; general fare is $2. Reservations are required. Rides can be reserved up to two days in advance; trips for medical appointments can be reserved up to six days in advance. To reserve a ride, call 941-8996. □

Wayne-Romulus Optimist Club Hosts Recognition Program

By Bettye Milledge

On Tuesday, September 26, the Optimist Club of Wayne-Romulus held its first annual Recognition Awards NOW Program at New Hope Baptist Church in Wayne.

Members of the Wayne-Romulus Club are proud to be part of Optimist International, one of the world's largest and most prestigious youth civic organizations. The 75-year-old Optimist International has over 100,000 members and consists of more than 4,400 clubs in North America and Western Europe.

Optimist clubs consist of civic-minded adults who sponsor great youth projects such as oratorical contests, essay contests, "Safety on Wheels" programs, Youth Appreciation Week, and Respect for Law Week, among others.

At the Recognition Awards NOW Program, members were honored for their contributions to youth and the community. Special guests included the Michigan District Optimist Governor, Don Garrett; Bruce Patterson, Wayne County Commissioner; Norman Anthony, Michigan District Training and Development Chairperson; Mary Ann Amos, Michigan District Public Relations Chairperson; members of the Detroit Little Rock Optimist Club; and members of the Youth Group of New Hope Baptist Church, who did a special presentation in sign language. Additionally, Commissioner Patterson presented the Club with a proclamation for work done in the community.

Members of the Club also took the opportunity to show their appreciation to past-President Alfaye Woods for her leadership.

At the October 24 meeting of the Club, the Lieutenant Governor for Wayne-Romulus, Dr. John Miller, installed the 1995-1996 President, Jennette Nolen; the Secretary-Treasurer; and the Board of Directors.

The Optimist Club looks forward to a new year and encourages civic-minded adults to become members of this organization. Anyone interested in membership should call Bettye Milledge: 941-1141 (work) or 941-3521 (home). □

State Motorists Pay "Deerly" for Car/Deer Crashes

The good news for deer hunters is that the State's whitetail population is near a record level.

And the bad news?

Vehicle-based crashes are on the rise as herds increase.

The State's herd — estimated at between 1.8 million and two million — probably hasn't been this big since 1989, when hunters enjoyed a record harvest of 452,490.

While hunting promises to be golden, AAA Michigan says that vehicle-deer crashes remain a big-bucks expense (pun intended) in the State, with the Auto Club paying out $10.4 million in property-damage claims in 1994.

Numbers tell the story:

- A record number of accidents involving vehicles and deer occurred last year, with every county showing an increase.
- In 1994, there were 56,666 vehicle/deer crashes in Michigan, a 19% hike over the 47,813 in 1993.
- Five people died in such accidents in 1994, the same as a year earlier.
- There were 2,040 injuries reported in 1994, up from 1,712 the previous year (a 19% increase).
- The average repair bill for a vehicle involved in a crash with a deer was $1,400 last year, up from $1,350 in 1993.
- Of the 398,050 total car crashes in the State last year, 56,666 (or 14%) involved deer.

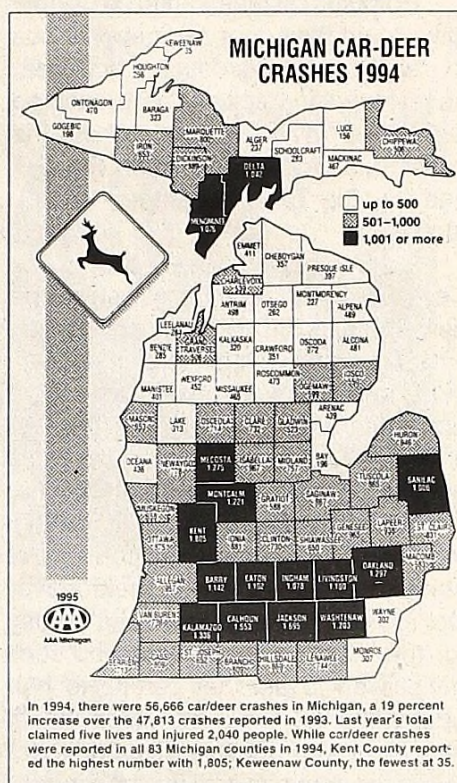

While vehicle/deer crashes are reported in each of Michigan's 83 counties and occur throughout the year, most happen during the fall and early winter months, says AAA Michigan Community Safety Services Manager Jerry Basch. Breeding and feeding practices find deer on the move during these months.

"The addition of close to 800,000 firearm-using deer-hunters in the woods between November 15 and 30 adds to normal traffic volumes," Basch added.

Last year, the top five counties in the number of vehicle/deer crashes reported were Kent (1,805), Jackson (1,695), Calhoun (1,553), Kalamazoo (1,336), and Oakland (1,297).

The fewest number were recorded in the Upper Peninsula counties of Keweenaw (35), Luce (156), and Gogebic (198), and in the eastern Lower Peninsula counties of Bay (196) and Montmorency (227). These figures can be misleading, however, because of low traffic volume in each of these counties.

There is no reasonable way to eliminate all vehicle/deer crashes because of the unpredictability of the animal, but Basch advises motorists to always wear safety belts, avoid alcohol when driving, and heed the following tips.

- Deliberately look for deer. Your visual search should include well down the roadway and far off to each side.
- Vehicle/deer crashes most often occur on paved local and country roads, but freeways are not exempt.
- Use extra caution when driving during the hours before dawn and just after dusk. Those are the most likely times to find deer moving from area to area.
- If you see a deer, slow down, drive cautiously, and assume that others are nearby.
- Should a deer dart into the road in front of you, do not take unsafe evasive action such as swerving. It is usually safer to strike the deer than another object, such as a tree or other vehicle.
- Be alert for shining eyes at night. Your headlights can "freeze" the deer. Flash your headlights on and off well in advance to encourage the deer to move from the roadway.
- Should you strike a deer, report it to local or county police and your insurance company. If you choose to keep the deer, you will need a permit from the police department or the Department of Natural Resources.

Safety, costs, and the growing number of vehicle/deer crashes have prompted the Michigan Department of Transportation to contract White Water Associates, Inc., to conduct a vehicle/deer collision study. The Upper Peninsula environmental laboratory will develop a study designed to investigate alternate methods to reduce vehicle/deer crashes.

"AAA Michigan praises this effort and will be working with researchers toward this goal," Basch said. □

Salvation Army Needs You!

The Salvation Army would like you to be their partner in serving the needs of people at Thanksgiving and Christmas time. This is how you can help.

- By inviting speakers from the Salvation Army's newly formed Speaker's Bureau, you and your community organization or church can learn about a variety of ways to become a partner. Please call (313) 722-3660 and ask for a speaker.
- Adopt a Family: The Salvation Army will match you up with a family, and you can purchase gifts and food for them for their Christmas.
- Conduct a Canned Food Drive: The Salvation Army anticipates helping over 1,000 families this holiday season, and needs to collect 40,000 canned goods to put in holiday food baskets.

- Banquet in a Box: This will provide festive holiday food deliveries to needy families in the Wayne, Westland, and Romulus area. Groups and individuals collect and fill banquet boxes with enough food and return them to the Salvation Army for delivery.
- Volunteer: You can volunteer to ring the bell at the Salvation Army's red kettle stand during the months of November and December. This can be done at night; Fridays and Saturdays are the best days to ring due to high traffic flow at the various locations. The monies raised will be used to help people in this area. Individuals, organizations, churches, and businesses are all encouraged to volunteer, and put the true spirit of giving into the holidays. □

Detroit Metro Airport Offers Holiday Travel Tips

With the holidays fast approaching, and increased security at Detroit Metropolitan Airport (DTW), Wayne County Executive Edward McNamara is offering some travel tips to help make traveling more enjoyable for passengers at Metro.

"The day before Thanksgiving is the busiest day of the year at Wayne County's Detroit Metropolitan Airport, followed closely by the Sunday after the Thanksgiving Holiday," said McNamara. "We want to make sure that DTW's passengers are prepared for the holiday rush, especially now that the Federal Aviation Administration has increased security at all U.S. airports."

Travel Tips

- Domestic passengers traveling Wednesday, November 22, and Sunday, November 26, should plan on arriving at DTW at least one and one-half hours before the scheduled departure of their flight. International passengers should allow themselves at least two and one-half hours.
- Curbside check-in is still allowed in front of the terminals.
- If you are picking up a friend or relative, plan on parking in one of the short-term lots. Motorists will not be allowed to wait at curbside. Unattended vehicles may be ticketed and towed.
- Mark your bags with a name tag on the inside as well as the outside of your bags.
- Passengers 18 years of age and older should be prepared to present a photo ID (driver's license or passport) at the ticket counters. If a passenger does not have a photo ID, two other pieces of ID - one of which must be government-issued, such as a voter's registration card, birth certificate, Social Security card, or employee ID - will suffice.

- Do not leave luggage unattended.
- Be prepared to answer questions about luggage.
- Pack cameras, jewelry, medications, money, passports, and other valuables in carry-on luggage.
- Other than essentials and valuables, try to keep carry-on luggage to a minimum. Holiday flights tend to be completely full and carry-on space inside most aircraft is at a premium.
- For quick identification of luggage, tie a bright colored ribbon on the handle of your bags.
- Remove hooks, straps, and removable wheels before checking luggage to avoid damage to your bag.
- All carry-on luggage is subject to inspection at the security checkpoint. Gift-wrapped packages may need to be opened. Plan on wrapping your gifts when you arrive at your destination.
- For Airport information, motorists approaching DTW can tune into 920 AM on their radio (within three to four miles of the Airport). The Airport parking hot-line (1-800-642-1978) will also advise travelers of up-to-the-minute parking conditions.

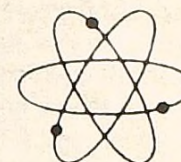

"DTW has experienced 24 consecutive months of record-breaking passenger traffic, and we expect the Thanksgiving traffic will add to the congestion at Metro," said Airport Director Robert Braun. "But with a little advance planning, we hope that, even if passengers encounter lines at curbsides, lot entrances, and screening checkpoints, they'll still arrive at their destinations with their holiday spirit intact." □

Individual and corporate sponsors for other "Empty Bowls" projects are also being sought. For more information, call Terri Harris at 374-2700, ext. 3288.
- The Nutcracker – The Taylor Ballet Americana with the Allen Park Symphony Orchestra will perform The Nutcracker at the Huron Civic Theatre (32044 Huron River Drive, in New Boston) on December 9 (8 p.m.), December 10 (8 p.m.), and December 11 (3 p.m.). Tickets ($12 for adults; $10 for senior citizens and students) are available at the Box Office; call 782-5380.
- Writer Support Group – Writers Anonymous, a newly formed writer support group encompassing all ages and interests, will meet at the Romulus Public Library (11121 South Wayne Road) on the first and third Monday of each month from 6:30 to 8 p.m. The group's objective is to give honest, constructive criticism and encouragement to its members. For information, call the Library at 942-7589.

The Stork Arrived

Sicille Paige D'Angelo

Loyd and Tracy D'Angelo of Wayne, Michigan, are proud to announce the birth of their first child, Sicille Paige D'Angelo. Sicille was born in Oakwood Hospital at 10:13 a.m. on Monday, October 2, 1995, weighing seven pounds, six ounces, and measuring 19³/₄ inches in length.

Also giving Sicille a loving welcome were her paternal grandparents, Paul and Cheryl D'Angelo (Garden City, MI), and her maternal grandparents, Jim and Rochelle Foust (Romulus, MI). □

Wedding Bells

Brad and Paula (McClellan) Reid

The Reverend Mike and Mrs. Charlene McClellan of Romulus, Michigan, are proud to announce the wedding of their daughter Paula to Brad Reid, the son of Dave and Nancy Reid of Marion, Indiana.

After an engagement of nearly four months (since May 11, 1995), the couple exchanged their vows before 250-300 guests in a double-ring ceremony held at the Brookhaven Wesleyan Church (Marion, IN) on Saturday, September 2, 1995. Officiating at the service was the bride's father, who is the pastor of Romulus Wesleyan Church (Romulus, MI).

Paula — beautiful in her veil and a full-length gown of off-white brocade with long sleeves, buttons down the front, and a long, flowing train — carried an arrangement of white roses accented with burgundy.

The maid of honor — the bride's sister, Julie McClellan — wore a mid-length, short-sleeved dress of burgundy brocade with off-white accents, sewn by the bride's aunt, and carried white roses accented with burgundy. Bridesmaids Jamie Luczak, a friend of the bride, and Sheri Ailstock, sister of the groom, were similarly clad.

Witney Ailstock, the groom's niece, was the flower girl. Wearing a tea-length dress of hunter-green brocade with off-white accents (sewn by the groom's mother), she walked along the aisle, scattering rose petals from the white basket she carried.

The groom cut a handsome figure in his black tuxedo. Similarly attired were his friend Nick Manwell, who served as his best man; his friend Jeremy Rumsey and brother-in-law Kelley Ailstock, the groomsmen; his cousins Lucas and Adam Binkerd, the ushers; and ring bearer/nephew Derrick Ailstock, who bore his charges on a pillow of off-white satin.

Both the bride's and the groom's mother wore hunter green: Mrs. McClellan's dress was mid-length and short-sleeved with buttons down the front and white trim; Mrs. Reid's tea-length dress was also short-sleeved.

Performing at the ceremony were pianist/organist Suzanna McGraw, trumpeter Nick Manwell, and vocalist Dale Munsell.

The newlyweds enjoyed a honeymoon at a cabin resort in Tennessee before taking up residence at their new home in Marion.

Paula is a graduate of Romulus High School, and is currently a student at and employed by Indiana Wesleyan University.

Brad, a graduate of Marion's Eastbrook High School and Vincennes University, is employed at Dave Reid Heating & Cooling. □
